

2025 Spring Academy

April 28 – May 2, 2025

Rancho Cordova, CA

The 2025 CFMA Spring Academy will again bring Emergency Vehicle Technicians first class training with many opportunities for hands-on learning. This is your opportunity to network with other professionals and learn the latest updates, technologies and trends.

Don't wait to register. Classes will fill up quickly. Take classes to achieve certification or for professional development —but DON'T MISS IT!

The California Emergency Equipment Showcase is your chance to get up close with the newest technologies and talk to the people who make them. Thursday, May 1st
12pm–6 pm

Full Week Courses

- EVT-1A Emergency Vehicle Systems
- EVT-1B Electrical Systems A
- EVT-1C Pumps & Accessories
- EVT-2A Electrical Systems B
- EVT-3A Fleet Specs, HR & Records
- FF-501 Knowing Your Apparatus

Don't forget to contact our office if you are ready to take one of the EVT certification exams

info@cafiremech.org

REGISTRATION DEADLINE FOR ALL IS APRIL 7TH, 2025

Partial Week Courses

- Pump Testing for Firefighters
- Electrical Charging Systems
- Air Brakes & ABS
- Fire Service Tool & New Battery Technology
- Cooling Systems Service
- Wheels & Tires
- Allison Transmission Preventative Maintenance
- Steering & Suspension
- Breathing Air Systems
- Foam Maintenance Service & Troubleshooting
- Multiplexing Diamond Logic
- Pump Theory & Troubleshooting
- Ca Laws and Regulations Updates

Hurry before classes fill up!

Registration is open!!

California Fire Mechanics Academy
6770 Stanford Ranch Rd #1129
Roseville, CA 95678

Tuition

Students may choose a full-week class or make a package of partial-week classes for the tuition price of $650. Students may also choose to take classes on a day-rate of $210/day.

Certification class students will need to pay an additional $140 for the State Fire Training Course fee.

Week-long tuition includes course handouts and admission to the CFMA Celebration on Thursday night.